

GROWTH DEVELOPMENT AND INEQUALITY

Prof. E. Croci Angelini
croci@unimc.it

Aims and contents

- ▶ This seminar is meant to look at the links connecting inequality to growth and development and possibly to understand them
- ▶ The assessment of income inequality: methods and results. Why the Human Development Index has been devised and what is the insight it offers. Tackling issues about health and education inequality. Does gender make a difference? The complex link between growth and inequality.

croci@unimc.it a.a.2012/13

2

COURSE OUTLINE

- ▶ March 5th, 2013 – Income inequality
- ▶ March 19th, 2013 – Multidimensional inequality
- ▶ April 16th, 2013 – Gender inequality
- ▶ May 7th, 2013 – Income inequality and growth
- ▶ May 14th, 2013 – Growth, development and inequalities
- ▶ Please note that lectures 11–13 are in 3bis, while lectures 13–15 are in AL1

croci@unimc.it a.a.2012/13

3

Credits and exams

- ▶ This seminar gives 4 credits to those who, having attended lectures, will submit a written coursework and sit for discussing it.
- ▶ Both coursework subject and submission as well as discussion deadlines should be agreed upon
- ▶ Final marks will be graded in 30th with pass=18

croci@unimc.it a.a.2012/13

4

textbooks

- ▶ 1. Branko Milanovic Worlds apart Princeton university press 2005
- ▶ 2. E. Croci Angelini Lecture notes Mimeo 2013
- ▶ Mimeo means that the Lecture notes, which could simply be the power point shown during classes, will be downloadable on the seminar webpage

croci@unimc.it a.a.2012/13

5

Questions?

- ▶ Contact mail: croci@unimc.it
- ▶ Course website:
<http://docenti.unimc.it/docenti/elisabetta-croci-angelini/2012/growth-development-and-inequality-2012>

croci@unimc.it a.a.2012/13

6